SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 93

WHEREAS, There has been, and continues to be, a significant expansion in the volume of personal property sold through pawnbrokers, auction services, consignment sellers, and other resellers; and

WHEREAS, There has been, and continues to be, a similar increase in the volume of stolen personal property sold through pawnbrokers, auction services, consignment sellers, and other resellers; and

WHEREAS, Access by law enforcement to sales-related information generated by pawnbrokers, auction services, consignment sellers, and other resellers has always been an important tool in combating burglary, robbery, theft, and other crimes directed at personal property; and

WHEREAS, Recent advances in electronic data collection and compilation have greatly simplified both the reporting of sales-related information by pawnbrokers, auction services, consignment sellers, and other resellers; and

WHEREAS, These same advances have created opportunities for law enforcement to access sales-related information at increasingly shorter intervals after the date of sale; and

WHEREAS, Law enforcement agencies, pawnbrokers, auction services, consignment sellers, resellers, and information technology-related businesses in several states have created differing systems to provide law enforcement with timely access to sales-related information; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-SIXTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that there is created the Re-Sellers' Electronic Reporting Task Force, consisting of 17 members appointed as follows:

- (1) two members of the Senate, one member appointed by the President of the Senate, and one member appointed by the Minority Leader of the Senate; the member appointed by the President of the Senate shall serve as chair of the Task Force;
- (2) three members appointed by the Governor; and
- (3) twelve members who are not members of the General Assembly appointed by the chair of the Task Force representing a range of interests, including: law enforcement, pawnbrokers, consignment sellers, auctioneers, insurance companies, and the general public; and be it further

RESOLVED, That all members shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for their reasonable and necessary expenses from funds appropriated for that purpose; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Task Force shall study the various systems, technologies, and methods of operation for providing law enforcement with timely access to information relating to the sales of personal property by pawnbrokers, auction services, consignment sellers, and other resellers, and shall consult with such law enforcement agencies, pawnbrokers, auction services, consignment sellers, resellers, and other persons or entities as it may deem fit, including, but not limited to, providers of technology and services relating to the collection, compilation, storage, and access to such information; and be it further

RESOLVED, That on or before December 31, 2009, the Task Force shall report to the General Assembly concerning its recommendations regarding the systems and technologies, together with their usage and potential funding mechanisms and sources, to be implemented to create a state-wide system for the collection of nation-wide sales-related information by pawnbrokers, auction services, consignment sellers, and other resellers, and for the compilation, storage and timely access to such information by law enforcement and shall include proposed legislation to implement its recommendations, if needed; and be it further

[February 19, 2009]

RESOLVED, That upon issuing its report, the Task Force shall be dissolved.

Senator Crotty offered the following Senate Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Assignments:

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 94

WHEREAS, Home Care is a cost effective alternative in the continuum of care for thousands of Illinois citizens with chronic illnesses or injuries or those recovering from surgery; and

WHEREAS, Advances in medical technology allow health professionals to provide the highest level of care in a nurturing home environment; and

WHEREAS, Home Care keeps families together; and

WHEREAS, Home Care allows older citizens to remain independent and postpones or eliminates the need for institutionalization; and

WHEREAS, Home Care allows children with chronic illness remain in their homes and live lives that are not defined by their illness; and

WHEREAS, Home Care promotes healing and prevents infection; and

WHEREAS, Home Care provides a positive environment for individuals improving their quality of life and, in many cases, extending life; and

WHEREAS, Home Care is a cost-effective health care solution, with per-capita expenditures that are 75-95% percent lower than other care alternatives; and

WHEREAS, There are more than 750 licensed home health providers in Illinois; and

WHEREAS, Home health is among the fastest growing professions in the country; and

WHEREAS, The current Illinois Medicaid reimbursement rate is threatening the availability of home health care; and

WHEREAS, Illinois' Medicaid reimbursement rate is the lowest of all Midwestern states and one of the lowest in the nation; and

WHEREAS, Home Care providers are currently reimbursed for less than half of their actual operating expenses; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-SIXTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that the Department of Healthcare and Family Services shall identify and target resources to increase the capacity to meet needs and desires of the population who could benefit from home health care and to prepare for future demands to build the capacity in the system now and into the future; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be delivered to the Director of Healthcare and Family Services.

Senator Murphy offered the following Senate Joint Resolution, which was ordered printed and referred to the Committee on Assignments:

[February 19, 2009]

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 25 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

SC0025

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-SIXTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING HEREIN, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the State for adoption or rejection at the general election next occurring at least 6 months after the adoption of this resolution a proposition to amend Article IV of the Illinois Constitution by changing Section 6 as follows:

ARTICLE IV
THE LEGISLATURE

SECTION 6. ORGANIZATION

(a) A majority of the members elected to each house constitutes a quorum.

(b) On the first day of the January session of the General Assembly in odd-numbered years, the Secretary of State shall convene the House of Representatives to elect from its membership a Speaker of the House of Representatives as presiding officer, and the Governor shall convene the Senate to elect from its membership a President of the Senate as presiding officer. A person may serve no more than a total of 10 years in any one of the following offices and no more than a combined total of 14 years in any 2 or more of the following offices: Speaker of the House of Representatives, President of the Senate, Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, or Minority Leader of the Senate; provided that service before the second Wednesday in January of 2011 shall not be considered in the calculation of a person's service.

(c) For purposes of powers of appointment conferred by this Constitution, the Minority Leader of either house is a member of the numerically strongest political party other than the party to which the Speaker or the President belongs, as the case may be.

(d) Each house shall determine the rules of its proceedings, judge the elections, returns and qualifications of its members and choose its officers. No member shall be expelled by either house, except by a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to that house. A member may be expelled only once for the same offense. Each house may punish by imprisonment any person, not a member, guilty of disrespect to the house by disorderly or contemptuous behavior in its presence. Imprisonment shall not extend beyond twenty-four hours at one time unless the person persists in disorderly or contemptuous behavior.
